GREEK SUSPECTS MAINTAIN INNOCENCE

DECLARE HAD NO PART IN SLAYING OF THREE OFFICERS AT FREDERICK

STATEMENT MADE TO JOURNAL REPORTER

Christos Geanetos, Well Known Greek Business Man, Acted as Interpreter for Prisoners—Claim They Had Been Threatened With Violence—Prisoners in County Jail

Twenty-nine Greek laborers arrested as suspects in the Frederick tragedy in which Sheriff Lashbrook of Schuyler county and his two deputies were shot and killed, are huddled in two large cells in the Morgan county jail.

Talking thru an interpreter, Christos Geanetos, a well known Greek business man of Jacksonville, the twenty-nine men maintained their innocence of active or passive participation in this fray. An attack by American trackmen who had been laid off caused the trouble, the prisoners say.

It is the claim of these men that they were all inside of their sleeping cars, with doors and windows closed, at the time of the tragedy, and that the shooting was done by men outside. Six or seven of their companion workmen were on watch outside the cars and according to the story of these men there were shots fired from all sides of the cars as if the cars had been surrounded.

Immediately following a series of shots a passenger train from the north pulled in and according to the story of these men their foreman shouted to them to leave their own cars and take the train for Beardstown, and give themselves over to the sheriff as a matter of protection.

The laborers said that they quickly leaped from the box cars in which they were housed, and crawling beneath the passenger train, entered the coaches from the other side. At Beardstown they were met by officers and taken to the town jail.

Mr. Geanetos last night put the accused men in touch with Walter W. Wright, who is to act as their attorney. Mr. Geanetos said that as none of the twenty-nine could speak English except brokenly that he thought it his duty to send a lawyer to them, that if guilty of the crime charged that they should be certainly be punished, and if not that it was proper for them to have someone to protect their rights.

Dennis Barbarigos is the interpreter for this group of workers, but has no great familiarity with English. The statement with reference to the events leading up to the happening of Friday night was made by Louis Margaris and Theodore Margaris thru Mr. Geanetos. They are men of mature years and brothers. Practically all of the twenty-nine workmen are married and have families in Greece that they expect to bring to this country at a later time.

Feeling Runs High.

The prisoners were brought to Jacksonville from Beardstown on the regular C. B. & Q. train at 2:14 Saturday afternoon. Arrangements had been made about noon with Sheriff Weatherford for housing the prisoners. The feeling against the men in Beardstown and in the nearby territory was such that the authorities decided that as a matter of safety the prisoners should be removed.

Sheriff Weatherford with Deputy Wright and several specialists, Chief of Police Kiloran and other members of the police force, were at the station when the train pulled in. The news of the coming of the prisoners had spread about quickly and a great throng of people was at the station.

The twenty-nine prisoners were in the rear car of the train with a guard of 18 officers. They were taken from the train and guarded by the Jacksonville and Beardstown officers, were marched immediately to the jail.

Scores of people followed and there were several hundred assembled at the jail. There was absolutely no demonstration against the men, merely curiosity causing the assembling.

Here are the general facts in the story told by the prisoners last night to a Journal reporter thru Mr. Geanetos as interpreter:

Story Told By Men.

They have been engaged in track work on the Burlington most of the time for nearly two years. Recently they were located near Bushnell, but at the time of the beginning of the high water nearly four weeks ago were transferred to Frederick. There were 29 men in the gang of Greek workmen and they were housed in

CRUSADERS ARE UNABLE TO SEE THE PRESIDENT

Little Encouragement is Received from Daugherty

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Checked by failure to see President Harding, the Children's "Crusade" which invaded the capital 37 strong today on behalf of the 114 war law violators now serving prison terms, got little encouragement from Attorney General Daugherty as to the recommendation for executive clemency and were uncertain tonight of their next move.

There was some talk that Miss Kate Richards O'Hare and other leaders in the American Civil Liberties Union, the organization having in charge the wives, mothers and children of the prisoners they have come to release from prison, would attend the president's church tomorrow with their charges. There is some disposition to send some of the children back home, but keep about 15 here "until we get action."

The party, composed mostly of children less than 12 years old, reached the white house gates shortly before 11 o'clock to be told that there was little possibility that the president would see them.

Mother Gets Ray of Hope

A ray of hope for at least one mother and her son loomed when Mr. Daugherty was reached almost immediately after leaving the white house. Mr. Christian, who consented to see a small delegation composed of Mrs. O'Hare and Miss Mary G. Fendall, well known locally, had explained that the proper procedure would be to see the attorney general. The latter after listening to Mrs. O'Hare announced he was "opposed to a general amnesty" but would take up each case individually when application is made and give careful consideration on its merits. In any action that he might take Mr. Daugherty added, he would give great weight to the question of whether the prisoner was sufficiently impressed by his punishment and with the laws he had violated.

At this point Mrs. W. B. Hough of Rockford, Illinois, a frail little woman, poorly but neatly clad, timidly stepped closer to the attorney general's desk and told of her two sons, one of whom had gone overseas and fought for his country and "thank God he came back safely," and the other, Clyde, now serving a term for violation of the espionage act for failing to register in the draft.

After serving his term, the mother said, Clyde was re-arrested for violating a law that "had not been in existence" when her boy was sent to jail for the first time.

"Both on your account and on his account, and on account of the government," Mr. Daugherty spoke up, "I will take that matter up as soon as his papers reach me and give it careful consideration."

BEGIN INQUEST IN DEATH OF REV. LEACH

PEORIA, Ill., April 29.—While a coroner's jury under the direction of G. S. Larkins of Tazewell county will tomorrow morning begin an investigation into the death of Rev. W. J. Leach, Methodist minister of Averyville, whose body was found in the river here today it is thought unlikely that the mystery will be cleared.

No marks of violence were found on the body but many of his congregation believe he was the victim of an attack of enemies, or robbers who thought he had money, but there is nothing on which to base their theory.

CAUSE OF HANNA GIRL'S DEATH IS STILL UNSOLVED

Autopsy of Stomach Ordered by State's Attorney

(By The Associated Press)

DANVILLE, Ill., April 29.—State's Attorney John H. Lewman tonight ordered an autopsy of the stomach of Gertrude Hanna, victim of the paragonage murder in an effort to determine the means by which the choir girl met her death.

At the same time Sheriff Knox asserted that matters had begun to clear somewhat for John C. Wyman Gertrude's former sweetheart, who was subjected to a severe 36 hour grilling by the authorities at Hoopesboro.

"Wyman made things appear badly for him by his outlandish lies," said the sheriff, "but we have checked up on his alibi and are convinced that he at least told a partial truth when he said he was in Danville for several days immediately preceding and following the girl's disappearance on March 31."

Wyman is still under surveillance, Sheriff Knox continued, adding that the farmer is still considered a likely prospect in the solution of the murder.

The confessed father of Miss Hanna's unborn child, Wyman, the authorities believe, can shed considerable light on the baffling case.

Strengthening of Wyman's alibi has only spurred Vermilion county authorities with determination to penetrate the maze of mystery surrounding the girl's death. State's Attorney Lewman declared.

Altho he had assumed personal charge of the investigation up until tonight, Mr. Lewman said that he has left the matter of the autopsy in the hands of Dr. F. C. Fisher, county physician.

Analysis to be Made

Dr. Fisher expected to leave tonight for Chicago, where the analysis will be made. The stomach has been in his possession since last Thursday immediately following the discovery of the body in the basement of the untenanted paragonage of the Hoopesboro United Presbyterian church.

Other vital organs were removed at the same time but an examination awaited tonight.

Breaks in the web of circumstantial evidence which Wyman's inquisitors believed they were weaving around him will make no change in contemplated grand jury investigation of Wyman's connection with the case State's Attorney Lewman said.

Upon the result of the stomach autopsy will probably depend the next step in the investigation, the Vermilion county prosecutor continued.

The murder probe uncovered some new important developments today.

The cause of Miss Hanna's death remained as much of a mystery as the identity of the murderer.

Several Theories Advanced

Several theories each had supporters among county authorities and medical men.

Dr. Fisher still held to his theory that death was caused by suffocation. Preliminary investigation of stomach without chemical analysis developed no clues and even supported the theory that Miss Hanna had gone without food for some time in contemplation of an operation.

If the girl had decided to submit to an operation and an anesthetic it was perfectly natural that she should refrain from eating for some time previous to the contemplated operation it was said.

The condition of the body also lent to additional mystery to the cause of death.

Altho the torso was well preserved the head was in a high state of putrefaction. This, Sheriff Knox declared, made it impossible to determine whether the girl had been killed by a blow on the head.

FORMER SHERIFF WILSON IS FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

Was Being Tried for Robbing Panama State Bank in 1921

(By The Associated Press)

HILLSBORO, Ill., April 29.—Former Sheriff John W. Wilson of Bond county, Constable Ben Battleson, of Greenville and "Irish" O'Malley of St. Louis were found guilty of robbing the Panama State bank of $37,000 by a jury in the Green county circuit court here today.

The jury was out less than an hour.

The robbery occurred last December in broad daylight. The state charged that two officers of the law had knowledge of the robbery plan and posted themselves so to prevent pursuit. It was said the former sheriff was paid $1,300 for his part in the plot. Three members of the party turned state's evidence.

One member, John Mayfield, was not convicted. Evidence was insufficient to hold him. Indictments against him were nolle.

A new trial of the case will be asked next week it was announced by the convicted men's lawyers.

RICHARD CROKER FORMER TAMMANY LEADER IS DEAD

Passed Away At His Estate in Ireland Saturday Afternoon

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, April 29.—Richard Croker, formerly leader of Tammany Hall, New York, died this afternoon at Glencairn Castle, Sandy Ford, a few miles from Dublin. His wife was at the bedside.

Croker spent most of the past ten years in Ireland, where he owned extensive estates making occasional visits to the United States. Shortly after he returned to Glencairn Castle and became seriously ill. But he soon showed signs of improvement and early this year he was reported to have regained his health.

Croker took a keen interest in the peace negotiations between Ireland and England. He favored the treaty providing for the free state and believed 98 percent of the people in America were in favor of it.

PROFESSOR ISSUES CHALLENGE TO BRYAN

(By The Associated Press)

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., April 29.—Dr. R. O. Spangler, professor of botany at West Virginia University today said he had decided to accept the $100 sent him under protest by W. J. Bryan as a reward to any college professor who would harmonize the Darwinian theory of evolution with the Bible.

In a letter to Mr. Bryan the professor called upon him to retract a statement that the biologist was "guilty of cowardly evasion." Faculty members, students and residents who heard Mr. Bryan's lecture and Professor Spangler's reply are "willing to sign a statement that the proposition had been answered as laid down by Mr. Bryan," declared the professor.

POWERS OUTLINE PLANS TO HELP SOVIET RUSSIA

Believe Once Confidence is Restored Aid Will Come

(By The Associated Press)

GENOA, April 29.—The powers have prepared the preamble of their Magna Charta for Russia. It outlines how Europe will give practical financial and economic help to permit that great country's restoration and reconstruction.

Across the Asiatic littoral Japan promises to contribute her portion of money to assist in the reorganization of Russia, and altho the United States is not mentioned in the preamble it is wide enough in scope to take in the whole world for its framers voice the conviction that once confidence is felt that foreigners can normally engage in enterprises in Russia the banks of all countries will willingly advance funds to their citizens to invest in Russia.

Great Britain and Belgium, as well as Japan to a lesser degree, are placing credits at the disposal of enterprises in Russia; France will provide railroad material; Italy will help by inland water transportation and all will participate in an international consortium. The sub-commission on Russian affairs has adopted a rule one, directed against propaganda by the Bolsheviks or attempts to change the existing frontiers. This has chief reference to Bessarabia, now annexed by Roumania. An agreement also was reached on the nationalization of private property.

Soviets Adhere to Doctrine

Apparently some compromise on the project has been devised by the jurists whereby the soviet are able to adhere to their great doctrine of "nationalization and simultaneously satisfy the foreign governments and peoples by granting the use of property instead of admitting actual ownership. The text has been kept secret.

Differences developed between England and France on the question of Russia's war debts, France insisting that Russia recognize them in their entirety now they ready to reduce them later.

The question was left to a committee.

On the question of war debts England proposed that the percentage whereby the war debts were to be reduced could be decided by the supreme court of the United States. M. Barthou said France was willing to grant facilities for payment such as a moratorium and was even ready to vote to reductions at a later date; meanwhile France demanded unqualified recognition by the soviet of the war debts.

Lloyd George said it had been understood that the Russian debt would be reduced and the powers must stick to this.

OPPOSING CHINESE ARMIES FIGHTING IN VICINITY OF PEKING

Civil War Started in Celestial Republic Saturday—The Armies of General Chang Tso-Lin and General Wu Pei Fu Clash—Foreigners are Remaining in the City

(By The Associated Press)

PEKING, April 30.—Civil war in China started Saturday with heavy cannonading in the neighborhood of Peking. The armies of General Chang Tso-Lin, military governor of Manchuria and General Wu Pei Fu, military leader of Central China, who are contending for the mastery of China's internal affairs, opened fire along a wide front.

As near as it is possible to estimate the front extends from Machang, south of Tientsin, on the Pukow railroad, across the country westward to Paoing Eu, on the Peking-Hankow railroad, thence northward to Changsintien, 12 miles southwest of Peking.

The hostilities are said to have been due to an ultimatum from General Wu Pei Fu giving Chang Tso-Lin 24 hours to evacuate Peking and withdraw his troops from Mukden. The ultimatum was ignored.

Hostilities were opened at Machang with artillery. Almost simultaneously cannonading began at Changsintien. Wu Pei Fu, who controls the Peking-Hankow railroad is transporting troops from the Yangtze with a view to turning Chang Tso-Lin's west wing located at Changsintien.

It is believed that Wu Pei Fu designs to drive Chang Tso-Lin's forces from about Peking.

The fighting near Changsintien centered around the river crossing known as the Marco Polo bridge. Peking was awakened at dawn by the sound of cannonading which continued through the day. Foreign residents who mounted the city wall could hear the firing distinctly. From the western hills outside the city, where many summer homes are located, the fighting at Changsintien was witnessed by numerous civilians.

Most of the foreigners returned to the city on the advice of the legations. They were also advised to display their national flags and this was done particularly by the Americans. Some of the city gates were closed the authorities warned that all the gates would be closed later in the day. One hundred and 33 American blue-jackets and marines have arrived to reinforce the legation. The total number of guard at the legations is about 1,000.

Japs Guard Railways.

Advices from Tsin-Tao and Shantung report that the Japanese are reinforcing their guards along the Shantung railways; these had recently been decreased in number as a result of the Washington conference. The American consul at Nanking reports that two Chinese cruisers in sympathy with Wu Pei Fu have departed from Chefoo and are proceeding from Shanhaikuan near the great wall for the purpose of destroying the railroad to Mukden.

The admiral of the Chinese fleet has notified the government that it is his purpose to support Wu Pei Fu. In his message he said:

"The reason China is disunited may be attributed to the militarists. Chang Tso-Lin moved inside the great wall without reason. Unless the Manchurians withdraw we will use the fleet to exterminate Chang Tso-Lin."

This doubtless refers to the plan to cut the railroad north of Shanhaikuan.

Evidence of the feeling of the Chinese in the outlying districts was observed in Peking last night when thousands of natives entered the western and southern gates carrying their valuables to safety. All kinds of vehicles came in loaded with goods and accompanied by women and children. Inside the gates the Chinese transported their money and jewelry to the banks in the legation confines.

The firing appeared to diminish when darkness fell.

GIVE UP SEARCH FOR PREHISTORIC MONSTER

BUENOS AIRES, April 29.—Search for the plesiosaurus in the wilds of Patagonia having proved fruitless the expedition which set out from Buenos Aires has decided to return. This is made known in dispatches from Bariloche which are confirmed by Professor Clement Onelli director of the Buenos Aires zoological gardens, who explains that the return is necessary on account of the approaching winter.

Hope has not been given up of finding the monster reported to have been seen in an Andean Lake and Professor Onelli plans to send another searching expedition in the summer of next year.

ALL QUIET AFTER RIOTS AT TOWER HILL MINE FRIDAY

Sheriff Announces No Assemblies Will be Permitted

(By The Associated Press)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., April 29.—New developments in the Fayette county coke region today, following riots at Tower Hill No. 1 of the Hillman Coal company ten miles from here and at the Orient mine of the Orient Coal & Coke company included orders by Sheriff Shaw that no assemblies will be permitted in the county a request from the sheriff for an additional machine gun and 10,000 rounds of ammunition and reports from the Uniontown hospital that Tony Rose, shot by a state policeman in the Tower Hill fight, is expected to die from his wounds.

All four state policemen injured will recover, Captain Herbert Smith said tonight, altho Lieutenant Charles T. Smith is in a serious condition. He was severely beaten by the crowd of about 500 men and women.

Mary Raven, a 2 year old child who was shot and wounded by a stray bullet was expected to recover, it was stated tonight. John Ramie, a miner, was also wounded.

Fifty three persons, 50 men and three women are in the county jail here charged with malicious assault and battery and inciting to riot.

According to the story of a state policeman who is in the hospital, the attack at the Tower Hill mine was led by four or five striking miners, and the crowd presented a veritable battle formation when the troops appeared to disperse them. After the first volley had been fired by the police he continued, the crowd pushed the women into the front lines as a shield against further firing.

For this reason the troops stated few shots were fired after that time.

The railroads long ago refused to obey certain orders of the railway wage board. Recently representatives of the railway employes organization took exception to board rulings and withdrew from a conference. If neither the roads nor the workers will abide by board rulings, what's the use?

It's a great surprise that over in Decatur, in the shadow of a splendid university, 130 persons made application for teachers certificates and of this number 107 failed to make the required

grades. of course the questions submitted by the county superintendent were those prepared by the state board. Here in Morgan county the percentage of those who fail is very small.

Individual hogs are being assessed in Illinois at prices ranging all the way from $4.29 to $11.28. It depends in what county you are resident, the assessment that is made on your swine.
This is only one of numerous facts to show that present methods of assessment and taxation have not reached the ideal.

Did it ever occur to you how much faith and optimism is required from the farmers in the flooded area? Those men who have sustained heavy losses by the floods, in some instances cannot plant their land this year. Yet they must forget their troubles, look hopefully to the future and try again. It takes more nerve than the average merchant would have if his business troubles were as excessive.

LOWER CONSTRUCTION COST SHOWN IN ROAD-WAY BIDS.

Confirmation of the predicted lower level of prices for road construction this year is found in the reports on bid prices of 286 miles of Federal-aid roads received by the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture, during the week ending April 8.

The average cost per mile of some of the types of roadway, including the cost of grading and drainage, were: 78 miles of gravel at $9,750 a mile, 45 miles of concrete at $29,000 a mile, 47 miles of bituminous macadam at $25,200 a mile, and 23 miles of bituminous concrete at $25,000 a mile.

HOW THE U. S. IS SAVING BILLIONS.

The Chicago Examiner is not given to boosting Republican administrations. But here is what Arthur Brisbane, former editorial writer says in the Examiner about the way in which the U. S. is now cutting down expenditures:

Not all the news is bad. Europe is gloomy, men are idle here, but here is one fact encouraging to Americans. This is the only country in the world that is living within its income.

The statement is made on the authority of Mr. Madden, chairman of the appropriations committee in the House of Representatives, who knows more about our finances than anybody else.

We are spending money freely,
the Lord knows it and taxpayers know it. But few realize how much President Harding's administration, and the men in charge of the budget and the appropriations, have done to cut down expenses.

In 1919 the government spent nineteen billions. In 1920 it spent seven and one-half billions.
In 1921 the bill was six and one-half billions. In 1922 we shall spend about four and a half billions. The budget of 1922, eliminating postoffice cost, which comes back largely in receipts, will be a trifle over three billions.

To come down from nineteen billions in 1919 to three billions in 1923 is doing well. Especially when you know that it costs two billions of dollars a year for fixed charges, interest on the national debt, pensions, sinking fund, etc.
The cost of the civil part of the government, leaving out army, navy and war debts, is only three hundred and forty million dollars.

Mr. Madden of Illinois, chairman of appropriations committee, cut more than three hundred million dollars out of the 1923 budget and nearly broke the hearts of the
"pork barrel" gentlemen.

WANT MINES TO BE PUBLIC UTILITIES

Missouri Man Wants State Legislation Enacted to Cover Matter—Says Public Should Have Voice in Industry.

ST. LOUIS Mo.—Enactment of legislation declaring the coal mines public utilities by state legislature was proposed tonight by J. R. Kelsce president of the Missouri Federation of Commercial clubs, as a means of ending the nation-wide strike and of eliminating the wage dispute between the operators and miners.

Saying that the public should have a voice in the coal industry, Kelsce suggested that a committee composed of representatives of the public and the miners be named by Secretary of Labor Davis to investigate and decide the wage issue of the strike.

Kelsce declared that "this method of selecting a committee to raise upon the pending wage dispute is the policy of state regulation."

"Existing state public utilities commissions can bring to bear the necessary influence to insure a proper adjustment of wage and a scale of reasonable prices for coal that will protect the operator, the miner and the public," he continued.

"The public should realize that the miners and the public are the chief sufferers from the coal strike, and should demand proper representation in the settlement of the wage dispute and a voice in fixing the price of coal."

"Public utilities are never permitted representation on any commission or body investigating rates and charges for public service and have no voice in arbitration and adjustment of wage disputes under existing public service commission laws."

"It is the duty of the public to see that employees and the public are protected in their rights in dealings with the public utilities, and it is the duty of the people of states to see that they are protected in their rights in the coal industry."

MURRAYVILLE VOTES TO CONTINUE COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL

At the election held in Murray-ville Saturday to determine whether or not the community high school should be continued there was a majority of 90 in favor of continuing the school. A total of 642 votes was cast, 366
in favor of continuing the school and 276 against.

For weeks past interest in the election has been constantly increasing and the large vote polled indicates the point to which this interest has grown. Those in favor of continuing the school were busy all during the day getting out votes and the same was true of those who were opposed to the project.

The railroads long ago refused to obey certain orders of the railway wage board. Recently representatives of the railway employees organization took exception to board rulings and withdrew from a conference. If neither he roads nor the workers will abide by board rulings, what's the use?

It's a great surprise that over Decatur, in the shadow of a splendid university, 130 persons filed application for teachers certificates and of this number 107 failed to make the required grades. Of course the questions submitted by the county superintendent were those prepared by the state board. Here in Morgan county the percentage of those who fail is very small.

Individual hogs are being assessed in Illinois at prices ranging all the way from $4.29 to $11.28. It depends in what county you are resident, the assessment that is made on your swine. This is only one of numerous facts to show that present methods of assessment and taxation have not reached the ideal.

Did it ever occur to you how much faith and optimism is required from the farmers in the flooded areas? These men who have sustained heavy losses by the floods, in some instances cannot plant their land this year. Yet they must forget their troubles, look hopefully to the future and try again. It takes more nerve than the average merchant would have if his business troubles were as excessive.

LOWER CONSTRUCTION COST SHOWN IN ROADWAY BIDS.

Confirmation of the predicted lower level of prices for road construction this year is found in the reports on bid prices of 286 miles of Federal-aid roads received by the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture, during the week ending April 8.

The average cost per mile of some of the types of roadway, including the cost of grading and drainage, were: 78 miles of gravel at $29,000 a mile, 47 miles of bituminous macadam at $25,200 a mile, and 23 miles of bituminous concrete at $25,000 a mile.

HOW THE U. S. IS SAVING BILLIONS.

The Chicago Examiner is not given to boosting Republican administrations. But here is what Arthur Brisbane, former editorial writer says in the Examiner about the way in which the U. S. is now cutting down expenditures:

Not all the news is bad. Europe is gloomy, men are idle here, but here is one fact encouraging to Americans. This is the only country in the world that is living within its income.

The statement is made on the authority of Mr. Madden, chairman of the appropriations committee in the House of Representatives, who knows more about our finances than anybody else.

We are spending money freely. The Lord knows it and taxpayers know it. But few realize how much President Harding's administration, and the men in charge of the budget and the appropriations, have done to cut down expenses.

In 1919 the government spent nineteen billions. In 1920 it spent seven and one-half billions. In 1921 the bill was six and one-half billions. In 1922 we shall spend about four and a half billions. The budget of 1922, eliminating postoffice cost, which comes back largely in receipts, will be a trifle over three billions.

To come down from nineteen billions in 1919 to three billions in 1923 is doing well. Especially when you know that it costs two billions of dollars a year for fixed charges, interest on the national debt, pensions, sinking fund, etc. The cost of the civil part of the government, leaving out army, navy and war debts, is only three hundred and forty million dollars.

Mr. Madden of Illinois, chairman of appropriations committee, cut more than three hundred million dollars out of the 1923 budget and nearly broke the hearts of the "pork barrel" gentlemen.

WANT MINES TO BE PUBLIC UTILITIES

Missouri Man Wants State Legislation Enacted to Cover Matter—Says Public Should Have Voice in Industry.

ST. LOUIS Mo.—Enactment of legislation declaring the coal mines public utilities by state legislature was proposed tonight by I. R. Kelsce president of the Missouri Federation of Commercial Clubs, as a means of ending the nation-wide strike and of eliminating the wage dispute between the operators and miners.

Saying that the public should have a voice in the coal industry, Kelsce suggested that a committee composed of representatives of the public and the miners be named by Secretary of Labor Davis to investigate and decide the wage issue of the strike.

Kelsce declared that "this method of selecting a committee to raise upon the pending wage dispute is the policy of state regulation."

"Existing state public utilities commissions can bring to bear the necessary influence to insure a proper adjustment of wage and a scale of reasonable prices for coal that will protect the operator, the mine and the public," he continued.

"The public should realize that the miners and the public are the chief sufferers from the coal strike, and should demand proper representation in the settlement of the wage dispute and a voice in fixing the price of coal."

"Public utilities are never permitted representation on any commission or body investigating rates and charges for public service and have no voice in arbitration and adjustment of wage disputes under existing public service commission laws."

"It is the duty of the public to see that employees and the public are protected in their rights in dealing with the public utilities, and it is the duty of the people of states to see that they are protected in their rights in the coal industry."

MURRAYVILLE VOTES TO CONTINUE COMMUNITY HIGH

At the election held in Murrayville Saturday to determine whether or not the community high school should be continued there was a majority of 90 in favor of continuing the school. A total of 642 votes was cast, 366 in favor of continuing the school and 276 against.

For weeks past interest in the election has been constantly increasing and the large vote polled indicates the point to which this interest has grown. Those in favor of continuing the school were busy all during the day getting out votes and the same was true of those who were opposed to the project.

NEWS OF INTEREST FOR FORMER SERVICE MEN

Poison Gas Beginning to Show its Effects.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.—Poison gas inhaled by American soldiers in France is beginning to show its effect by causing service men to lose their voices, according to information received here by Department Commander William R. McCauley of The American Legion. The report was from the United States Veterans' Bureau at Washington D. C. which has asked the Legion to inform gassed veterans whose ability to speak is becoming impaired to report to the nearest Bureau physician for examination.

The first successful surgical operation upon a veteran suffering from a tumor on the vocal cords as a result of exposure to the gas has just been reported by the Bureau. The former soldier is Brig. Gen. Roy V. Hoffman, Oklahoma City, attorney, who practically lost his voice.

Gen. Hoffman's voice is now completely restored as a result of the operation, performed by Dr. Chevalier Jackson, Philadelphia the Bureau announces. It adds that a large number of young veterans have recently been found to be suffering from tumors of the vocal cords, apparently in their inceptions. The growth prevents vibration of the cords, due to pressure and thus affects the voice.

The Legion, Commander McCauley, announced, is asked to spread this information and to get service men suffering from a growing inability to speak to go before Veteran Bureau doctors for prompt examination. If the cases warrant, he said, the Bureau

Colors Will Float Over Graves.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.—Colors for which they fought and died will float above the European graves of American soldiers this Decoration Day.

Department Adjutant William Q. Setliffe, calling attention to the approach of that patriotic holiday, May 30, and naming those graves in Europe "holy acres of American soil overseas," has called upon all legionnaires in Illinois to donate five cents apiece to a fund to make decoration of graves in France, Great Britain, Italy and Russia, as though the celebration at home.

Adjutant Setliffe also announced that in the place of those "who cherish some grave overseas and cannot place their tribute on it in person."

"The Legion," the department Adjutant continues is glad to offer its assistance to these, and funds received for this purpose will receive special attention. Funds should be sent to Department Headquarters, accompanied by all available data as to the location of such particular graves, not later than May 10. Such date has been distributed to the text of kin by the Graves Registration Bureau. Information sent in with funds must include:

"Name of dead. (2) Rank of organization. (3) Army Serial number. (4) Grave number. (5) Lot number. (6) Name and location of cemetery. (7) Date of death."

"Memorial Day," Adjutant Setliffe's appeal says, "is rapidly approaching, the day sacred to those who died that America might live. It is the honor and privilege of The American Legion to decorate this day the graves of our comrades who fell on foreign soil."

"While thousands of communities throughout the country are honoring the soldier dead in their midst, the distant graves in France and England, Italy and Russia are the Legion's particular care. For the last two years it has been the custom of National Headquarters to collect and transmit aboard a fund for our membership for this purpose and the response has shown that the policy is popular. Altho many of the bodies of the veterans have been brought home, there still remain overseas some thirty thousand American dead who will not be removed from their resting place."

"Committees are established for the purpose in France and Great Britain, composed largely of Legion men, acting in conjunction with similar bodies of officials and citizens of the respective foreign countries; and posts in all European countries, co-operating with these committees, will see that the grave of every American who perished overseas is appropriately decorated."

"The National Commander feels it a particularly solemn obligation that the membership of The American Legion continue this high policy and he therefore issued a call to all Legion members, to give their moral and financial support to the decoration of these holy acres of American soil overseas."

"It is requested that the Illinois Department raise from members of the Legion a sum equal to five cents per member and that no Post contribute less than $5.00."

Alton Will Send Delegate to Convention.

Legionnaires of Alton will have a big delegation at The American Legion's national convention at New Orleans next October. Their plans include the organization of a "Convention Club" through which enough money is to be raised to charter a special car for the trip. An initial fund will be secured by a $1 assessment against each member of the club.

Adjutant Zewewer is backing the "club" program with his best efforts.

Decatur Has Complete Gun Carriage.

Military funerals will be given all former soldiers who die or are buried in Decatur. The American Legion Headquarters here has announced that a complete gun carriage occasion limber have been received by Regimental Headquarters company of the Illinois National guard, and that this equipment will be available for all Legion funerals.

The carriage was received from Camp Knox Ky., where it was obtained by Congressman Allen P. Moore. The city council of Decatur paid for its transportation here.

This military acquisition by Decatur will usher in a new order. Instead of a hearse the remains of all former soldiers who are buried here will be drawn in a last resting place, upon a flag draped carriage, escorted in military fashion by comrades in uniform.

BATHING POOL.

MARRIAGE ANNULLED
Oklahoma City, Okla., April 29.—The bathing pool marriage performed at Medicine Park, near Lawton, Oklahoma, last summer by the Rev. Thomas J. Irwin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Lawton, one of the matters over which the membership of the church has split was annulled today by Judge Preps in district court.

Mrs. Pat Quinn and Mrs. Lola Funk of Morrill were shopping in town yesterday.

Frederick and four or five from Browning. One shot was fired and then there was a series of shots, coming from all directions, giving the impression that the cars were practically surrounded. The men inside then laid flat on the car floors to escape any shots coming thru the windows.

Just about this time the train pulled in and the shout of the crowd was heard urging them to get aboard the train. Hastily they unfurnished the doors of their barricaded cars and cowering beneath the passenger train, got aboard on the other side. The train pulled out almost immediately and within a short time they had reached Beardstown, where on arrival they were taken into custody and to the jail.

The men in this group are of various ages running from 21 to 50. They are all swarthy of appearance but do not have the countenance of vicious men. They insist that for days they have been trying to get away from Frederick, as they were afraid of what might happen and were worried about the attitude of the local men who had temporarily lost their jobs.

Questioned about the whereabouts of the six or seven men who were on the lookout, the prisoners here stoutly declared that they haven't the slightest idea what became of them and do not know whether any of their fellows were injured.

Mob Violence Feared.

RUSHVILLE, Ill., April 29.—Indictments charging thirty Greek section hands with murder or manslaughter were tonight declared probable when the Schuyler county grand jury reconvenes here Monday. The Greeks tonight are safe from mob violence behind the strong walls of the Morgan county jail at Jacksonville, and the dead sheriff and his two slain deputies are lying at their homes, producing a feeling which the acting sheriff says is "anti-Greek."

Developments come thick and fast today. A mob of 1,000 gathered about the city prison at Beardstown at noon, but their threatened violence was frustrated by the co-operation of Chief of Police Robert Patterson and a "right crew" of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad. Armed automobiles bearing the Greeks can alongside the running freight train and transferred their prisoners, while the mob raced toward them from the other end of the yards.

Coroner and Acting Sheriff Fred Harvey gave the order for the removal to Jacksonville. Immediately afterward he turned his attention to the grand jurors bearing them into session which was issued by Circuit Judge Guy R. Williams of Havana. And then he turned to getting out notices to the county board of supervisors calling them together Wednesday to name a temporary sheriff.

Both at Frederick, the flooded little village that afforded last night's disastrous encounter, and at Rushville the sentiment against the Greeks is still high. Dr. W. T. McElroy of Frederick, in whose office the inquest was held, declared he believed there was a clear case against the Greeks.

"Condition of the railroad station and the box car here, and examination of the bodies of the dead men," the doctor said, "show that the plot, whatever its cause, was carefully planned and executed. Deputy Sheriff Uter was well known to the gang. He was shot at arm's length. His face is marked with powder."

"Mattresses laid behind the barricade on the station platform and mattresses behind the barricades in the cars, dotted with empty cartridges evidenced the extent to which the gang had planned to go."

Turning from a busy circuit docket, State's Attorney Paul Morning said he would return to Frederick tonight to complete, if possible his investigation. Arrests of some of those agitators from Browning and Frederick alleged to be responsible for the action of the Greeks, Mr. Morning said, was very probable.

Will Hold Entire Group.

Warrants against the Greeks themselves, he added, would not be obtained until Monday. He declined to say what charges the warrants would bring. He intimated, however, that the entire group of Greeks would be held.

"Indictments," he said, "will be returned speedily. The Greeks will be held at Jacksonville until indictments are in hand and then, if the temper of local people permits, the prisoners may be brought here for trial."

County Judge Isaac Lewis announced that the funeral for Sheriff Edward Lashbrook would be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Methodist church, and would be conducted by the Odd Fellows Lodge. At Frederick, the home of the two slain deputies, it was announced the funeral of Frank Uter would also be held Monday afternoon and that of Carl Neff, would be held Tuesday.

Coroner Harvey said his information was that thirty Greeks were in the group taken from the prison at Beardstown to the county jail at Jacksonville.

They were arrested as they got off the train at Beardstown five miles up the river from Frederick and another one of the party arrested at Astoria, 13 miles north of Frederick this morning. It was also rumored he said, that an arrest was made today at Vermont.

"Search is still being made for several others," the coroner said. "Reports are that nine of the gang

ESTABLISH SCHOOL FOR TURKISH PRINCES

CONSTANTINOPLE.—Turkish princes have been found lacking in educational qualifications by the Council for the Affairs of the Imperial family, which has decided to establish a secondary school exclusively for the use of young sons of royalty.

An investigation by the council disclosed that since 1908 only three Imperial Princes have been well educated in military matters, and they are graduates of German institutions. One of them now holds the rank of major, while the other two are captains. Omar Farouk Effendi, son of the heir-apparent, is a graduate of the Vienna Theresianum.

Fifteen other princes are said to have little if any military education and but limited schooling in general subjects. Essad Pasha, ex-Minister of Marine, has been instructed to draw up plans for their education and select a site for the royal school.

ACHILLES IMITATES ILLUSTRIOUS NAMESAKE

QUINCY, Ill., April 29.—An "open door" policy helped the Fraternal Order of Eagles' baseball club to beat the Keokuk Coals 8 to 6 here today. With two men on the eighth Achilles, the Eagles' shortstop, crashed the ball straight at a five foot door which forms an exit in left field fence. Some kindly soul opened the door and the ball went thru with Hickey, Keokuk left fielder, traveling after it. He grabbed it and threw it in time to stop Achilles at second. Two men before him scored giving the Eagles the game.

GOMPERS MAKES AN ATTACK ON LANDIS AWARD

Says It Is Violation of Secondary Boycott Court Decision

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 29.—The open shop fight of the Citizens Committee to Enforce the Landis Award in the building trades of Chicago is a violation of the secondary boycott decisions of the United States Supreme court, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor told thousands of union workers at a mass meeting tonight. The meeting followed a parade and demonstrations against the enforcement of the award made by Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, as arbitrator.

Citing supreme court decisions on the secondary boycott in the Danbury Hatters', Duplex, and Buck Stove and Range cases Mr. Gompers challenged lawyers in the audience to dispute his statement that the citizens committee which has raised several million dollars to back contractors who will abide by the award, was itself violating those same decisions.

"The mistake the building trades made," the veteran leader said, was to agree to the selection of any court as an arbitrator. Judge Landis was denounced by Emmott Flood, an American Federation of Labor as a "buffoon and dangerous demagogue from the day of his appointment to the federal bench."

Red Cross Estimates Show Big Farm Loss From Flood

Maurice R. Rebbly, who has been in charge of the Red Cross relief expedition along the Illinois river, has concluded his work and will return to Chicago Monday. The steamer Illinois was used by Mr. Rebbly and his party of workers. During the past week thru this agency about 27,000 pounds of supplies were distributed among the stricken families along the river. Workers have been placed at various points and provisions are ample to last thru a period of days. Mr. Rebbly said last night that the water has now lowered sufficiently to make it certain that food supplies can be secured with railroad transportation.

The relief party included Miss Mary MacKay of Chicago, Miss Jacobina Riecke, Red Cross nurse of this city, and Miss Grace Carter, who is head of the nursing activities committee of Red Cross. Estimates made for Flooded District between Meredosia and Spanky Ranch, which is in Jersey County, just below the town of Kampsville:

| TILLABLE LAND FLOODED. | ACRES. |

| Value of matured crop less the cost of planting, harvesting etc., Wheat | $214,000 |
| Rye | 4,500 |
| | $353,500 |

PROSPECTIVE CORN CROP.

Unless the flooded farm lands are free from water and ready for corn planting in June, there is little chance of harvesting a crop this year because the first frost will get corn that is planted too late. As there is no dairying in these districts silage is not made, therefore an unmatured corn crop will be a total loss. Many experts, including some of the big farm managers are very doubtful about a corn crop this year.

Annual yield of Corn in Flooded area 1,000,000 Bushels
Value of 1922 Corn Crop, estimated at market price of 50 cents per bushel and at this time figured at a loss $500,000

FARM BUILDING LOSSES.

Farm Buildings in this section are estimated to be worth $1,000 for each 100 acres of tillable land; therefore the value of buildings in flood area is: Value $507,000
Losses conservatively 10 per cent or $50,700

FARM MACHINERY LOSSES.

It requires about $500 worth of farm implements to till 100 acres; therefore the value of farm machinery in flood is $253,000
Loss is estimated at 20 per cent or $50,700

GRAIN AND FEED IN BINS AND STACK LOSSES.

Corn held by farmers for better market or for feeding 161,520 bu.

Total loss of hay and grain in bins $120,760

AGGREGATE LOSSES.

Land depreciation on market is estimated to be $50 per acre, making a land valuation loss of $2,535,000
Loss to Drainage District in Levees, figured at $5 per acre, makes loss of $150,000
Loss in Farm Buildings, Machinery, rain, Crops, etc. $1,076,000

RUSSIA MUST TAKE DOWN ITS BARRIERS

Free Trade With Outside World Must Be Permitted if Country is to Go Forward.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—American and other business men to whom the correspondent talked during an eight months stay just completed in Russia declared that business could be done with Russians provided the Soviet government would take down all its customs barriers and permit free trade with the outside world in the same sense that it now permits free trade inside Russia.

The problem which is interesting business men all over the world seems to hinge on the attitude of the Communists. Up to now they have insisted that all foreign trade must pass through their hands. This is partly a matter of politics and partly a matter of personal compensation. They wish to keep all the power in their hands in order to maintain themselves.

The Communists are in decided dilemma. If they insist on controlling foreign trade, they fear that Russia is doomed. If they surrender their power and Russia is saved, they believe they will be slowly shoved aside.

turn to private property. There are widespread indications that, by the force of circumstances, private property will be recognized in every part of Russia. A Moscow decree to that effect has been expected for many months.

The question of guarantees is another point that is constantly raised in connection with doing business with Soviet Russia. Old business men say that this is one of the chances that foreigners must take if they wish to do business with Russia. There is no doubt at the present time that the Soviet officials are in a frame of mind to try to uphold any guarantees they give.

The Italians in Constantinople versed in the Black Sea trade have been doing a certain amount of business every year but they find it very difficult. One of the members of the Italian Embassy in Constantinople complained that whenever an Italian cargo went into Russia it always meant the intervention of diplomatic agents backed by warships before the final sale was made.

Admiral Mark L. Bristol, United States High Commissioner here has claimed for years that if Americans go boldly into Russia and into Turkey they will profit by their investments in the end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Donnell and daughter were up from Winchester yesterday. William O'Donnell and wife from Winchester were in the city Saturday from Winchester.

CROP DEPENDS ON CORN PLANTER

Farmer Should See that it is in Good Condition—Large Acreage Lost thru Poor Condition of Planter.

URBANA.—A great many farmers will lose a large percentage of their possible corn yield this year, as they have in other years, unless to proper attention is given to the corn planter before the work of planting begins, according to the Department of Farm Mechanics of the University of Illinois. The importance of the proper selection, care and adjustment of seeding machinery cannot be over emphasized, the department declared.

"No matter how well the ground is fertilized nor how well it is prepared, if the machine for distributing the corn is not what it ought to be, the loss is irreparable," said a statement by the department today. "No one can afford to take chances with an old corn planter out of repair and adjustment. The final result will be a large and economic yield of corn of high market value."

"Probably the market value of corn being raised as a result of accuracy of drop is the more important than is the increase in number of bushels raised per acre. Many farmers do not have a grader to grade their corn. When the farmer has planted five or six acres, he does not empty out his box but fills it up again and again. Towards the close of his run the proportion of bad kernels has been very largely increased, because they are the ones which have been left in the box. Undoubtedly this must have a very marked influence upon the accuracy of drop and the operation would no doubt be well paid to empty his box about every time he refills it."

The department listed the following as "home facts" for corn planters:

"Wherever an edge selection planter is used, the seed should be graded as the increase in accuracy is sufficient to word out this. In no case is double grading profitable."

"The butt and tip kernels should always be removed as the accuracy may not be as high if curacy as much as the tip kernels, however, do not lower the accuracy as much as the tip kernels do."

"If accuracy is desired the planter should not be driven at a rapid gait through the field. It is better to maintain a medium or slow rate of speed."

MURPHYSBORO MAN ELECTED PRESIDENT

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 29.—Fred M. Rollins of the Murphysboro, Ill., Independent, was elected president of the Illinois Press Association at the close of its annual convention today. Other officers follow:

John H. Harrison, Danville, first vice president; J. E. Dirlinger, Bushnell, second vice president; Katherine McLean, LaSalle, third vice president; H. L. Williamson, state superintendent of printing, Springfield, secretary; William J. Smith, Waukegan, treasurer.

The University of Illinois was requested in resolutions to give two weeks each year to a short course in journalism and the president and trustees were asked to segregate the courses in journalism into a full department instead of combining them in the department of English.

Truth in editorial and news matter and the refusal of questionable advertising were declared to be most important tenets of journalism in a code of ethics adopted today.

Under Price Gas Ranges Mean Over High Gas Bills

Would You Prefer an Initial Saving of Three or Four Dollars, or a Monthly Saving of 50c to $1?

The First Cost of the Gas Range is a Small Matter Comparatively; it is the Cost of its operation the Year Around That is the Most Vital Point for You to Consider

It Costs Less to Operate a New Method Than Any Other Gas Range

These figures were secured as the result of a most thorough competitive test with twenty makes of stoves.

Supposing that the initial cost of some unknown range was $2.00 or $3.00 less, and your gas bills were $4.00 a month.

With the New Method there would be a saving in your gas bills per year of more than the difference in cost between the two ranges.

Is This Saving Worth While?

Especially when you consider that the New Method is enameled throughout, even including the burners, which makes it the most sanitary range made. Split oven doors, movable simmering burner and lighter, are the other features not found in any other stove.

ILLINOIS U. ATHLETES SET NEW MARKS

BREAK FOUR MILE RELAY RECORD AND WIN TWO OTHERS

Angier Sets a New American Mark for the Javelin—Beardstown Boy Hurls it 202 Feet 9 1/2 Inches—Osborne Sets High Jump Mark—Watson Defeats Joie Ray in Mile

(By The Associated Press)

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 29.—Sensational racing and brilliant performances in the field events resulted in an avalanche of broken records in the thirteenth annual Drake relays today.

A world's record was shattered in the four mile relay, a new American mark was set in the javelin throw and a new intercollegiate record was created in the running high jump. Two records for the Drake games were cracked and two were tied. The crack University of Illinois team clipped six and a fifth seconds off the world's record for the four mile relay, covering the distance in 17:45. The former record of 17:51 1-5 was made by the Boston Athletic Association team in a meet at Easton, Pa., nine years ago.

The Illinois flyers were Howard Yates, captain, Russell Wharton, John Patterson and Gordon McGinnis. Yates, who beat the tape by Krogh of Chicago in the first mile covered the distance in 4:27 3-5. Patterson ran the second mile in 4:25 2-5 and McGinnis, running third for Illinois, covered the distance in 4:28 3-5, finishing nearly a lap ahead of the field. Wharton the anchor-man of the quartet stepped the fastest mile of the race breaking the tape in 4:23 3-5. His nearest rival was 150 yards in the rear at the finish.

Milton Angier another Illinois performer shattered the American record in the javelin throw when he heaved the shaft 202 feet 9 1/2 inches, breaking the former record of 197 feet 5 1/4 inches made by James C. Lincoln, of New York Athletic Club in New York in 1920.

The new high jumping record created fell to the honor of Lloyd

Osborne also of the Illinois team who cleared the bar at 6 feet 6 inches in the running high jump, a height never before reached in intercollegiate competition according to Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, referee of today's games.

Conditions Were Perfect. With a bright sun and only a slight breeze conditions were perfect for a record breaking performance and Osborne continued his efforts until successful.

After bagging the lion's share of the honors, the Illinois team finished its day's work by setting a new record for the Drake quarter mile relay, winning the event in 3:20 2-5.

The former record was 3:21 3-5. The Illinois half mile team tied the Drake record by winning the event in 1:28 4-5, which gave Illinois victories in three of the five university class relays.

Honors for cracking other Drake records went to the Cedar Rapids, Iowa high school team, which set a new mark of 8:27 4-5 for the two mile event and 3:31 1-5 for the mile. The team also tied the Drake record for the half mile high school relay covering the distance in 1:34 3-5.

Centre Wins College Relay. Perhaps the most thrilling race was the one mile college relay, which went to Centre College in 3:31 4-5. Berryman, after running a punishing race in the second quarter fell in a collapse. He set a desperate pace and made up at least 30 yards for his team.

The Occidental college team of Los Angeles won the half mile college relay and the Michigan aggies won the two mile college relay.

The biggest upset of the meet was the defeat of Joie Ray of the Illinois A. C. holder of seven world's records. Ray was vanquished today by Watson an undergraduate of the Kansas Aggies, in a special one mile match race in 4:24 3-5. Watson shot into the lead at the start retaining it for the first quarter mile. Ray passed him in the second quarter and held the advantage until they turned into the stretch. Then Watson with a burst of speed, pushed ahead of Ray as they were within seventy-five yards of the finish and broke the tape a victor by two yards.

Everett Bradley of Kansas carried off individual honors by winning first places in the shotput and running broad jump.

Brutus Hamilton, Missouri, all round star and second in the javelin, third in the discus, fourth in the shot put and tied for second in the pole vault.

MINNESOTA TEAM GREEN BUT WILLING

Coach Describes Candidates Who Turn Out for Spring Practice—New Coach Was Assistant to Andy Smith and California U.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Green, but willing and awfully tough," is the manner in which Boles Rosenthal newly appointed line coach at the University of Minnesota described the candidates for the 1922 football team who have been working out at spring practice.

Rosenthal last season was assistant to Andy Smith at the University of California and perfected a line defense which held back all attacks sent against the Bears.

Working with Rosenthal is George Hines, one of the greatest linemen ever developed at Minnesota, and the pair are putting line candidates through the rudiments of play in the various forward positions.

More than 100 line candidates have reported and are said to furnish W. H. (Bill) Spaulding a wealth of material, which should develop into real football stuff. Both Rosenthal and Hauser praise the physical development of the men after a little personal contact and expect to be able to work off a large amount of the greenness before the close of the spring season.

Coach Spaulding is looking over the backfield material. Several of the men who were on last season's squad are busy in other branches of athletics. Martineau the best ground gainer of last season's winless team, is out for track. Gilstead and Brown, also backfield men, are out for baseball. However, Coach Spaulding believes that these men will be ready for the fall work without the spring training.

Considerable time is being given to the development of kickers and some promising material has been uncovered.

FARMER BOY RACE DRIVER IN GAME

Jules Ellingboe Will Drive Duesenberg in Indianapolis Race.

Indianapolis, April 29.—Jules Ellingboe, the farmer boy race driver from Crookston, Minnesota will drive a Duesenberg in the International 500-mile race to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Tuesday May 30.

This announcement was made today after Ellingboe was in conference with Duesenberg factory officials, having come to Indianapolis from the South where he spent the winter.

It came as somewhat of a surprise to those who follow automobile racing closely, for Ellingboe racing his first whirl at big league racing last year under the guiding hand of Louis Chevrolet and it was expected that he would pilot one of Chevrolet's products.

In his first start at Indianapolis last May, Ellingboe was third to Tommy Milton and Roscoe Saries, both veterans of the speedways, beating numerous of the older drivers to the tape. Having graduated from the difficult dirt track paths, driving the Indianapolis course was second nature for the Crookston lad, and he made a great showing.

He was badly injured at Uniontown a month after the Indianapolis race in his initial start on a board bowl when he cut short to permit the seeding Roscoe Saries to get around him and turned over. However, he has fully recovered and is anxious to get back at the wheel.

Ellingboe who has gone to his home in the little Minnesota town where a dirt track racing promoter discovered him doing fancy tricks on a half-mile track and took him out so the wide world might have a chance to admire his prowess.

He is conceded to be the king of the dirt track drivers and can do more stunts with an automobile on a dusty oval than a circus clown can do in a sawdust ring.

Great things are expected of Ellingboe with his new mount and it is very likely he will campaign every speedway in the country in his newly acquired racing car.

He will return to Indianapolis the first week in May to get ready for the big motor derby Decoration Day.

STILL SOLICITING FUNDS FOR BALL TEAM

Work is Progressing Slowly—Smith Must Know This Week if the Necessary Funds Can be Raised.

Work of soliciting funds for a baseball team for Jacksonville is still in progress. The work is progressing slowly however.

Manager Smith said last night that unless the necessary amount was raised this week Jacksonville would have no team. A site for the park must be secured this week and work commenced to get it in shape for playing.

Several fans are assisting Mr. Smith in the work of soliciting. It will be impossible to see all interested in the team personally. Mr. Smith asks those who wish to contribute to mail check to him as soon as possible.

Speaking of the local situation last night Mr. Smith said there were plenty of good players awaiting the outcome of the campaign for the local team. If the necessary funds are secured Jacksonville will be assured a good team.

PENNSYLVANIA WON TWO MILE RELAY IN WORLD'S RECORD TIME

Team Steps Distance in Seven Minutes, 49 and 2-5 Seconds—Beats the Time of Oxford-Cambridge Team Two Years Ago—Other Events Also Were Keenly Contested

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA April 29.—Racing to victory in the world's record time of 7 minutes, 49 2-5 seconds, the University of Pennsylvania two mile relay team captured chief honors on Franklin field today in the twenty-eighth annual relay carnival of its own institution after a thrilling spiked shoe battle with Penn State and Georgetown runners. This contest and time was the outstanding feature.

While Pennsylvania with its record-breaking team stood foremost in the limelight, Cornell, Syracuse and Georgetown won relay titular places of prominence and Earl Thomson of Dartmouth; Alfred Leconey of Lafayette; Ralph Hills, Princeton; Murphy of Notre Dame and LeRoy Brown of Dartmouth won chief honors in the individual events.

The new world's record was established by the Pennsylvania quartet consisting of George Meredith E. McMullen, J. Holden and L. Brown and supplanted by a full second the time of the famous Oxford-Cambridge University of England combination, running under the title of the Achilles Club. The English team's time of 7 minutes 52 2-5 seconds was made on the same track two years ago.

The contest of that year could not compare with today's struggle. George Meredith a brother of the famous Ted Meredith was first away for the red and blue. At the end of the first half mile both Johnson of Princeton and Connolly of Georgetown, led him home by some yards. McMullen regained all the loss and showed a 20 yard lead at the mile. Holden dropped behind Larry Shields of Penn State in the third relay and when Larry Brown ran for Pennsylvania in the final half mile he faced a lead of some 15 yards to cut down before he was in a position to set the pace. On the back stretch he moved up rapidly and finally overhauled Helfrich running anchor for Penn State. The final 200 yards was a shoulder to shoulder battle in which Brown's superior speed and endurance was too much for his rival and he won by 13 yards after running the last half mile in 1 minute 54 seconds.

The time of the four Penn relays was 1:56 4-5; 3:55 2-5; 5:52 4-5; 7:49 2-5. Georgetown was third.

The one mile championship race won by Syracuse in 3:19 2-5 also furnished a hair raising contest. It was a battle between Syracuse and Princeton. In the final lap Stevenson of Princeton was sent away with a three yard lead over Woodring of Syracuse. Woodring after a terrific stern chase overhauled Stevenson and won by a slight margin. Some idea of Woodring's speed can be gained from the fact that he ran his quarter in 47 2-5 seconds, around two turns, just four fifths of a second less than the world's record made by Maxey Long on a straightaway quarter mile track.

WILLIAMS LEADS IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

St. Louis Outfielder Tops Batter in First Two Weeks of Play—Kelly of New York Leads Nationals.

CHICAGO, April 29.—Kenneth Williams, the hardhitting outfielder with the St. Louis Browns who startled the baseball world by cracking Babe Ruth's home run record for the first two weeks of the season when he smashed out his sixth circuit drive, is at the top of the batters in the American League, according to averages released today and which include Wednesday's games.

Williams is tied with Tris Speaker, the veteran leader of the Cleveland Indians. Each has an average of .449. Williams is not only topping the hitters, but is showing the way to the base stealers with eight safes. His six home runs is a big advantage over his rivals, and if he maintains his present stride, Ruth will have a big handicap to overcome when he returns to the game on May 20.

The St. Louis slugger also is out in front in total bases with a total of 42.

George Sisler, another star of the Browns, has been wielding the willow with telling effect since the curtain rose, and is trailing the leaders with an average of .444.

Other leading batters for five or more games are: Pratt, Boston .422; E. Smith, Boston .429; E. Collins, Chicago .380; Scott, New York .378; Wood, Cleveland .375; Jamieson, Cleveland .370; Blue, Detroit .364; Heilmann, Detroit .364; Cuthbert, Detroit .346; Rice, Washington .346.

George Kelly, the Giant's first baseman, who last season led the National League home run hitters is out of repeat this season, but appears to have some keen competition in his teammates, Mousie, and Cy Williams, the Philadelphia outfielder. This trio has clouted out three homers apiece.

Kelly is topping the batters with an average of .454, while Tierney, the Pittsburgh second sacker, is three points behind with a mark of .452.

Hornby of St. Louis, who carried off the league batting honors last season is down in the list with a mark of .368.

Rabbit Maranville of the Pirates and Rawlings of the Giants are having a nip and tuck race for the honors among the base stealers. Each has pilfered four.

Other leading batters for five or more games are: Tierney, Pittsburgh .429; Harper, Cincinnati .421; Hollocher, Chicago .338; Williams, Philadelphia .335; Maranville, Pittsburgh .378; Parkin, Philadelphia .375; Hornby, St. Louis .368; Bixbee, Pittsburgh .362; Henline, Philadelphia .351.

Initial averages of the American Association show Gossett, the Milwaukee catcher, basking in the leadership with an average of .419. Mayer, a catcher with Minneapolis, is runner-up with .405.

Seven players are in the scramble for home run honors each having collected two. They are: Gossett, Milwaukee; Mayer, Minneapolis; Todd, Toledo; Barrus, Columbus; and Brief, Kansas City. Catchers have been on the alert for thefts as the leading base stealers have been held down to three apiece. They are: Mathews, Milwaukee; Rehg, Indianapolis; Christensen, St. Paul.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Kirk, Louisville, .400; Krueger, Indianapolis .400; Lamar, Toledo .395; Russell, Minneapolis .385; Murphy, Columbus .392; Hartley, Columbus .390; Strickling, Indianapolis .390; Lear, Milwaukee .385.

Carl East outfielder with the Wichita Club, is blazing the trail for the hitters in the Western league with an average of .512. In his first twelve games East collected twenty-two hits, three of them being homers and four going for doubles.

Davis, of Tulsa, is carving a name for himself in the home run ball of fame. In thirteen games he polled six circuit drives. Bennett and Thompson also of Tulsa are following him with four homers apiece. Conlon of Wichita is leading the league in base stealing with five.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Elsh, Sioux City .462; Bennett, Tulsa .436; Lelievre, Tulsa .434; Davis, Tulsa .431; Long, Denver .413; Gomes, 104; Mannsch, Omaha .404; Middleton, Oklahoma City .404.

In the Southeastern Association McMillan of Memphis is on top of the batting heap with an average of .444, with Mayer of Atlanta leading in home run hitting with a trio to his credit. Henry of New Orleans has shown himself the fastest player on the bases. He bagged five in the first fourteen games. The averages include games of Tuesday.

Other leading batters for ten or more games: Burke, Nashville, .429; Jackson, Little Rock, .413; D. Williams, Mobile, .407; Conolly, Little Rock .406; Mayer Atlanta .400; Zollers, Little Rock .400; Barrett, Little Rock .394; Henry, New Orleans .365; Lapan, Little Rock .364.

ATTENDED NATIONAL D. A. R. CONFERENCE

Delegates From Rev. James Caldwell Chapter D. A. R., Return From Washington, D. C.

Miss Effie Epler, state librarian of the Daughters of the American Revolution, returned Friday evening after attending the national D. A. R. conference held in Washington, D. C. Miss Maria Fairbank, the regent, and Mrs. W. Barry Brown, who were delegates from Rev. James Caldwell chapter, returned several days ago.

The conference was largely attended, more than 2,700 delegates being present. At the session Monday evening a large number of notables were present, including Ambassador Jusserand of France and Sir Auckland Geddes, English ambassador, together with their wives. There were also representatives of a number of other foreign countries among those present. Ambassador Jusserand and Ambassador Geddes were among those who made addresses Monday evening, and Secretary Hughes was also a speaker. The marine band played and there were various interesting features.

At one session of the conference an address was made by Princess Cantacuzene of Russia, a granddaughter of Gen. Grant. There were numerous social events for the delegates, including a tea given by Senator McKinley and a banquet by the Illinois society. The jubilee banquet given the final evening was for all the delegates.

The day Miss Epler left Washington Shady's equestrian statue of General Grant was unveiled in the Botanical Garden, Princess Cantacuzene and her young daughter having a prominent part in the ceremonies.

Among the worth while things which the D. A. R., has accomplished the past year was the printing of an immigrants' manual sent out in four languages, for the benefit of immigrants who seek to become citizens of the U. S. Another accomplishment has been the presentation to the war museum in France of a large oil painting of a convoy of ships. The canvas is four feet square, the work of one of our noted artists. Another undertaking which was completed the past year was the erection of a beautiful memorial for the pilgrim mothers of Plymouth, Mass.

While in the east, Miss Epler attended the convention of the League of Women Voters, the Pan-American Conference of Women, held at Baltimore. Delegates were there from all over the U. S., Central and South America, and many persons of prominence were on the program.

SHORTER HOURS AT CLOVERLEAF OFFICES

New Schedule Effective May 15th Has Employees Hearty Approval—Company to Serve Luncheons

New hours will be effective in the offices of the Cloverleaf Life & Casualty Co., beginning May 15 and continuing until September 15. Miss Rieman for the company recently made the announcement of the new schedule which provides for office hours from 7:30 o'clock a. m. to 3:30 p. m., with a half hour recess at noon time. Saturday the hours will be from 7:30 until 12 o'clock. This schedule met the immediate approval of a large group of young women employed in the company's office.

Last year the shorter day plan was tried out successfully and this year the time has been shortened another half hour. This is made possible by the fact that the company will serve a noon day luncheon to the employees without cost. Menus will be planned a week in advance and the young women will know from day to day the menus in prospect, so that they can be supplemented if desired. The luncheons will be served in the Booster club rooms in cafeteria style.

There are forty-four young women in the company offices and six in the Cloverleaf press offices. The new schedule will also apply to the men employees.

The relationships between the Cloverleaf Co., and its employees are most cordial and consideration and interest shown by the employers and appreciation manifested in the service rendered by the employees.

STARVE CHINCH BUG IS NEW BATTLE CRY NOW BEING SENT OUT

This is Appeal Sent Out by the State Entomologist, W. P. Flint, from the University of Illinois—Should Grow Legumes as the Chinch Bugs Will Not Feed On Them

(By The Associated Press)

URBANA, Ill., April 29.—"Starve the chinch bug" is a new battle cry which is going out from the office of the state entomologist, W. P. Flint, at the University of Illinois. "Although it may seem rather preposterous to starve an insect that occurs in the fields as commonly as the chinch bug," Mr. Flint said, "the food habits of this insect show that it is entirely possible to greatly lessen its numbers by reducing its food supply."

"The chinch bug feeds entirely on the sap of plants of the grass family. It obtains this sap by piercing the stems of the plants with its sharp tubular beak. To enable the chinch bug to increase to such an extent that it can cause serious damage, it is necessary that enough plants of the grass family be growing in a green and succulent condition during the entire season to furnish food for both the first and second brood of the chinch bug."

"The first brood of the chinch bug depends for its food almost entirely on the small grains. The second brood depends very largely upon corn. During July and August when this brood makes its appearance, the small grains have been cut and most of the wild grasses on which the chinch bug feeds are not sufficiently succulent to furnish food for a very large number of the insects."

"Throughout the state, wherever chinch bugs are abundant, one should endeavor to grow the maximum acreage of legumes. Chinch bugs will not feed on legumes."

"In those sections of the state where corn is the main money crop, the acreage of small grains, particularly oats, wheat, and barley, should be reduced to a minimum, and the maximum acreage of legumes and corn grown, thus reducing the food supply for the first brood of bugs. The southern part of the state, where the land is not well adapted to corn and where wheat is the money crop this crop should be extensively grown. The corn acreage should be reduced, and only the known chinch bug resistant varieties should be planted, and these only on good ground. As in the central part of the state the maximum acreage of legumes should be grown."

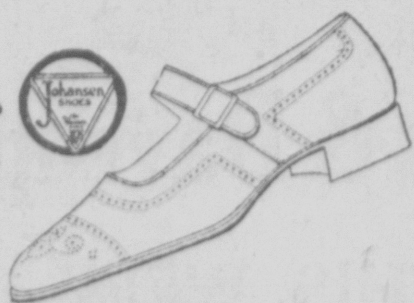

"Aside from legumes, we have other crops, not grasses, which can profitably be grown in some parts of the state. Among these are buckwheat, rape, sunflowers for silage, and stock beets or mangels."

FLOOD SUFFERERS ARE APPRECIATIVE

Louis Frank Receives Letter Thanking Local Citizens for Help in Recent Flood.

The directors of the Illinois river Flood Fund drive in Jacksonville have received letters from Naples, Beardstown, and Meredosia, expressing the appreciation of the citizens of these towns, for the aid which Jacksonville has given in this time of need. The Beardstown letter has been published and the other letters are printed below, as it is thought that local people will be interested to know the real appreciation felt toward Jacksonville:

Naples, Ill., April 27, 1922.
Mr. Louis L. Frank, Chairman,
Illinois River Flood Relief,
Chamber of Commerce,
Jacksonville, Illinois.

Dear Sir:—
The Farmers and Traders Bank at Meredosia sent a statement yesterday of the deposit of five hundred dollars ($500.00) by the Chamber of Commerce of Jacksonville for the relief of flood sufferers in Naples and vicinity. As yet we have not found any urgent need for the money but it will be used later and we shall let you know just how this money is disposed of.

We also, received today, shipment you made of beef and other provisions.

I thank you in behalf of the people of Naples for your contributions and the interest you have taken in the relief of the people in my village.

Very sincerely yours,
Mrs. John Chambers, Mayor.

Naples, Ill., April 28, 1922.
Chamber of Commerce,
Jacksonville, Illinois.

Dear Sir:—
Received your letter of the 27th in which you state you have sent another five hundred dollars ($500.00) to the Farmers and Traders Bank at Meredosia; will say this money is greatly appreciated and can be used to good advantage in relief work at Naples and vicinity.

You mentioned, also, you had a box of clothing and as there has been inquiries made for such clothing will ask you to forward same to me. We will be glad to pay the freight charges as you suggested and think it will be possible for you to send direct to Naples on the train by the first of the week.

As to general conditions there is no sickness among the people. It seems to be making the best of their plight. The water is receding slowly and has fallen in all about 14 inches.

Thanking you for your generosity and the interest you are displaying in the relief of Naples, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. John Chambers, Mayor.

TWO FIRES AT WHITE HALL FRIDAY MORNING

Fire Department Summoned to
Two Homes at Exactly Same
Time—Slight Damage in Each Instance—Other News From White Hall.

White Hall, April 29.—The fire department was summoned to two fires at exactly the same moment Friday morning, residences of W. F. Short on Centennial street and Dr. W. W. Billings on North Main street. While the Short folks awaited the arrival of the fire fighters they were combating a threatening blaze at the Billings home. The houses were slight, both being of flue origin.

A change in the arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. William Monroe caused the services to be held in the M. E. church under the direction of Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick instead of in the M. E. church at Roodhouse. The remains were placed in the Judd vault in the White Hall cemetery to await final funeral arrangements. This arrangement was carried out Thursday afternoon. It had been previously reported that her death occurred in the home of her father, Edward Butler, on Maple Heights, this city.

The congregation of the First Baptist church has arranged for the use of the high school gymnasium in which to hold services while the church is undergoing remodeling. The finance committee has passed the $10,000 mark toward the $20,000 goal.

A called meeting of the alumnae of the Conservatory of Music and Jacksonville Female academy will be held in the parlors at Academy hall at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

RAILROADS MUST GET ON TO BUSINESS BASIS SAYE BABSON

Famous Statistician Gives Reason for 20 Year
Decline in Railroad Securities

The price of railroad securities has almost continually declined since the construction period of railroading is gone by. There is no more reason why a Civil Engineer should run a railroad today that he should run the Woolworth business or the Sears-Roebuck business. Transportation is a commodity like steel, cotton or fruit. The railroads should be run by men who are natural merchants; men who were well trained to get business, render service and operate a business at a profit.

"When the railroads are operated as great merchandising propositions, looking to their territories instead of to Washington, looking to their customers instead of to politicians and labor leaders endeavoring to please their customers and serve them as a merchant is compelled to serve his customers, then the railroads will regain their lost prestige. The railroads bear the same relation to the prosperity of the country as a man's arteries and veins bear to his body; thus, a railroad cannot be prosperous for any length of time unless the railroad that is serving it is also prosperous."

"The railroads are suffering today from precedent. The operators, and the Interstate Commerce Commission, are all doing things because their predecessors did them. While conditions remain the same, precedent is a good guide to follow. However, when conditions change precedent becomes a most dangerous guide to follow. Investors are fast coming to this conclusion. The railroad president of the future will be a great merchant and the railroad employees of the future will be trained in salesmanship and service. Then the railroads will come back and the railroad securities will again return to the high place which they deserve."

Despite the recent stock market decline, general business continues the sidewise movement it has been following since last December. The index figure of the Babsonchart shows general activity 19 per cent below normal. "Discounting this better day," Mr. Babson concluded, "investors are justified in their purchase of railroad securities, especially those of the trunk lines such as New York Central, Illinois Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Union Pacific, Northern Pacific and Great Northern, Southern Pacific, Chicago Rock Island, St. Louis and San Francisco, and Kansas City and Southern."

"We hear much talk about the high railroad wages," says Mr. Babson in making his second point, "but statistics show that railroad labor is not over paid as a group. The difficulty is not due to high wages, but rather due to inefficient labor and to the many useless rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the State Legislatures, and Congress. The trouble comes from a waste of labor than from excessive wages. The railroads could today keep wages as they are if they could dispense with the great army of unnecessary employees who are not only bleeding the public but are ruining the discipline of the organization itself. When one man is loafing on the job it tends inevitably to make everyone else loaf. What the one-man car has done for the street railways of the country some similar system should do for the steam railroads. As there is absolutely no need of the railroads using all the trainmen that they use today. The number must be reduced before the railroads can be efficiently run and made to pay."

"The third great factor," says Mr. Babson, "is the automobile and the auto truck. The auto truck is getting practically all the short freight hauls. As they have practically no road tax to pay they have an unusual advantage. The public supplies the roadbed, it supplies the terminals, and supplies and everything free but the truck, driver and gasoline. The idea of letting these trucks ruin our highways, as they are doing today, without pay for the privilege, is a mistake which will some day be rectified. However, even if the truck does pay its proper share for the maintenance of highways, it is very debatable whether or not the railroads will be able to compete with them on short haul business. The automobile truck has come to stay and will always be a distinct competitor to short haul lines. For that reason, I think it is wise for people to invest their money in the trunk lines that cannot be adversely affected by motor competition."

"The fourth factor," continued Mr. Babson, "that is causing the railroad securities to lag is the many services they are performing for nothing, or without adequate return. The terminal charge should be much more than it now is. There should be different rules regarding the loading and unloading of cars. The car charge per day is too small. Also free checking of trunks is absurd. I was examining railroad property in the South a few weeks ago. In a morning's ride, I noticed that the baggage man handled but one trunk during the entire trip. That baggage man was paid five dollars a day. Although there were several other trunks which he had cared for this trunk, yet because the Interstate Commerce Commission required that a baggage man be employed on that train, he had to make the trip. The railroads are doing too much for nothing. Of course they should render service; but they should be paid for that service by the people to whom it is rendered."

In conclusion Mr. Babson brought out the fifth reason that railroad securities have continued to decline due to the management. "The railroads were built by civil engineers. These engineers have gradually worked up until they have become the operators. They are honest, hard-working, intelligent men, but they are trained for engineering and not for merchandising. Now a banker might efficiently operate the railroad if he would live on it and give it his attention, but a banker cannot successfully operate a railroad in the South or West from an office chair in New York City. Transportation today is a matter of merchandising. The construction period of railroading is gone by. There is no more reason why a Civil Engineer should run a railroad today that he should run the Woolworth business or the Sears-Roebuck business. Transportation is a commodity like steel, cotton or fruit. In conclusion Mr. Babson brought out the fifth reason that railroad securities have continued to decline due to the management. "The railroads were built by civil engineers. These engineers have gradually worked up until they have become the operators. They are honest, hard-working, intelligent men, but they are trained for engineering and not for merchandising. Now a banker might efficiently operate the railroad if he would live on it and give it his attention, but a banker cannot successfully operate a railroad in the South or West from an office chair in New York City. SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—Apprehension is growing daily among Illinois farmers over delay in getting started with spring plowing and seeding of oats, according to A. J. Spratt, U. S. Agricultural statistician for Illinois in his last semi-monthly report for March.

The apprehension has been caused by frequent rains which have kept the fields heavy making work virtually impossible.

Winter wheat conditions are better than anticipated earlier in the season, Mr. Spratt said. This especially is true, he added, over the heavier acreage areas. In northern counties the open winter caused some thinning of wheat and scattered damage has resulted from frosts, especially in poorly drained spots and in bottom lands.

Illinois' pastures are turning green and showing a rapid growth in livestock in the state generally is in good condition, according to the report, although some farmers have experienced bad luck with early broods of spring pigs.

The report continues, "Corn reserves are quite uneven but fairly liberal for the state, with the bulk of the holdings in strong hands. Market movement is dull due to the recent break in price and the disposition to feed freely on farms as well as to hold for higher prices."

"Hay prices are showing improvement but market movement continues slow, due to bad roads and moderate supplies."

TEN MILLION READERS OF SCRIPTURE PRINTED IN 1000 PUBLICATIONS

Back to the Bible Bureau Estimates That it Costs One Dollar for Every Million Readers—The Goal of 110,000,000 Readers is Announced in the Five Year Program

(By The Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, O., April 29.—At an expense of one dollar for every million readers, the Back to the Bible Bureau of Cincinnati, is getting one verse of scripture daily printed in about one thousand American newspapers and magazines. Its total daily scripture readers are estimated at 10,000,000 now, two years after the bureau's inauguration.

A goal of 110,000,000 Bible verse readers daily is announced, with a five year program to make it effective.

The Bureau's idea is that to daily reading of one Bible verse makes for good citizenship, and that the best pulpit thru which to reach all persons is the daily press. The organization is non-sectarian, its daily verses going to publications of all faiths, free of charge, and not only to newspapers but to trade journals, and to society and labor publications.

How the idea started and its rapid growth is described by George W. Hartzell, A Dayton, Ohio manufacturer, an advisory member of the Bureau. The Chairman is James N. Gamble of the Proctor and Gamble company.

The Bureau was inaugurated two years ago by Addison Y. Reid, of Cincinnati, who is now its secretary. He had been conducting a propaganda for prohibition, sending daily contributions to a number of newspapers and paying for their publication. With the adoption of the prohibition amendment, Mr. Reid stopped that work, but decided to try a campaign of Biblical verse.

At first he paid for the publication of daily Bible verses just the same as he had paid for the propaganda. The verses went only to a few newspapers. After about six months paid publications, other newspapers, becoming interested, and discovering that Mr. Reid was furnishing the scriptural quotations, asked him to supply them, also, offering to make publication without charge. Thereupon Mr. Reid stopped paying for insertion of the verses, and the present Bureau was inaugurated.

Mr. Hartzell said that in these two years the Bureau has expended $10,000, all of it for printing and postage, as there are no other expenses, all the work being voluntarily done by a group of Cincinnati residents. The response to the Bureau's letters offering from all sections of the country, Mr. Hartzell stated. The daily papers now publishing include 46 in Canada and publications in Hawaii, the Philippines and the scriptures has been uniform Korea.

Many papers have been putting the daily verse at the head of the editorial column, but not all.

Run at Head of Comic Page.
"A large Ohio daily," said Mr. Hartzell, "is running the verse completely across its daily comic page. When I asked the editor why he chose that position, he replied:

"Why, don't you want it in the most conspicuous place?"

"This editor added, laughing, 'Perhaps the readers of the comic need balancing more than anyone else.'"

"The editor of a Bellingham, Washington, paper made a personal investigation to discover whether subscribers really read these daily verses. He reported that he found that thousands actually read them."

"The verses are selected by Mr. Reid, who before having them mailed, submits them to a committee of ministers and church officials for approval."

Mr. Hartzell said that the Bureau is now engaged in raising a fund of $200,000, the amount it is estimated the work of extending the publication to a 110,000,000 daily circulation will cost in the next five years.

Glenn Edwards of Ashland was a business caller in the city yesterday.

Two autos collided at the corner of Ayers bank and the Square Saturday evening about eight thirty o'clock. The drivers were Dr. George E. Baxter of this city and H. R. Ashley of Benton, Illinois. Both men were evidently bent on making the turn on West State street from the square at the same time, the result being that Dr. Baxter's car had its springs flattened and the Ashley car suffered a bent front fender. Aside from that no damage was done, both men counting themselves lucky that no greater damage resulted.

Isaiah's Summons and Response

We know less about Isaiah as a man than we do even of John Baptist. He too is a "Voice"—most impersonal of the prophets. It seems designed that we shall not be divided from his message by the minutiae of his life. Yet his book is the mirror of himself. We know the kind of men it took to produce it. We feel acquainted with him in spite of the scantiness of biographical facts. We quickly lose our hearts to this lofty and influential spirit who of all the prophets projects himself furthest, not merely through Israel's history but who abides a living force in Christianity to this day. He has unique introduction to office. Once while in the temple rapt in thought and devotion the Person of God was so impressed upon his consciousness that it became as it were objective to his senses—an apocalyptic panorama. The picture took the form of royalty which enables the prophet was familiar—an exalted throne—vestments of light—winged and weird figures of arabesque—peraphim—brilliant ones seemed to

"The Gulbransen is Part of Our Family"

"Mother, Father, Mary, myself and the Gulbransen—that's our family. And I'm the song leader," says the boy.

"The Gulbransen is our pal. All play it well—all differently, according to our ideas. It holds us together—makes 'Home Sweet Home' sweeter!"

"Mother sings the old love songs and hymns, to her own accompaniment.

"Father delights in playing plantation melodies and marches.

"Mary and I play popular airs.

"And how quickly we learned with the aid of Gulbransen instruction rolls! Such a musical education would certainly have cost us a fortune—to say nothing of many hours."

The Gulbransen is bringing new joys into thousands of homes. Gulbransen Instruction Rolls—the modern method of playing—teach you to play any selection correctly—from popular airs to grand opera.

people the air and make it vocal with antiphonal ascriptions—while to the overtaxed eyes of the prophet the solid parts of the court were clouded and incensed with heavenly perfume. The prophet's first impression is of personal unworthiness.

Then and there as always sin and holiness proved mutually repellent. Isaiah makes his humble and sincere confession. Relief comes instantly. Quick as thought the interior cleansing already accomplished is indicated by a most significant sign—the application of the purest and most purifying element of nature. But the scene is not merely spectacular and sensational—not just overwhelming in majesty. It has immediate results and they are practical, permanent and valuable. It is borne in upon consciousness that the Lord needs a messenger—great imperative need—a superlative necessity. The thought is so intense that it seems like an audible voice external to the prophet. This consciousness of the Lord's need is matched with the sense of readiness of readiness which enables the prophet to cry joyously, "Here am I! Send me!"

Under the Study Lamp

Isaiah evidently intended the phrase "in the year that King Uzziah died" as a chronological note. As such it is not very satisfactory to use, however it may have been at the time it was used. But now it serves another purpose. The king dead is in antithesis to the king who never dies. God lives in spite of the evolutions of territorial things. Kings and kingdoms have died but he is the same. He changeth not. To Isaiah's mind the death of Uzziah was an event to date from his reign of half a century was the most splendid since Solomon's; and it struck the heart of the young prophet who was also an ardent patriot as a great disaster. But he might have said as Garfield did on the death of Lincoln, "God still lives and the Government endures."

"Helped till he was strong" then he forgot whence his help came. How humane! A dying young man was asked what he thought the Lord required of him. He answered: "I ought to worship him!" Rather crude, but then "worship" is "worth-ship" acknowledging the "worth" of God, noblest and most ennobling of acts. However it is not enough to chant "Holy, holy!" The ultimate expression of worship is in service, doing God's will. God is sovereign. He is unthroned. He changeth not. He doeth his pleasure in Heaven and in earth. If holy angels cover their faces before divine holiness what shall sinful man do? Repentance is rational and right. The humility of the angels is not content with a merely negative state. There is quick correlation of grace by which self-abusing worship is transmuted into active service. Perception of the holiness of God is invariably attended by discovery of one's own unworthiness. Confession is the natural consequence. Cleansing is the divine response and is the indispensable requisite for service. We may, if we will, have to all intents and purposes Isaiah's glorious vision of God. According to our sphere function and opportunity it will be as important and far-reaching in results, as his was.

Isaiah got his vision of God at church. In spite of every untoward condition that is still the most favorable place on earth to get the vision of heaven, the reality and presence of the Person of God; and God's need of man's co-operation in bettering the world. There is still need of going to church. In this connection also is seen the real function of the church, its superlative dignity and importance. It is to give men a sense of the Divine Being and his immanence.

Applying Religion to Every-Day Life.

Thomas N. Hart came to Boston at 13 to work for his board and clothes and stuck to it until he owned the store. He has served the city as merchant, councilman, alderman, mayor and postmaster. His eye is bright and step elastic. His prescription for longevity is "Don't lose your temper. There is a connection between short tempers and short lives. Bad temper is a sign you're worried and when you worry you wear yourself out.

After all particularly all the troubles we have are those we make for ourselves. We don't often get hurt by the things other people do to us. What bothers us is worrying over what someone else has done. It is ninety-three years since I was born and I haven't learned to worry yet."

And outdoors.
There I found a brooklet murmuring,
And I heard a robin sing.

Money to Build Your Home

We are pleased to announce to the people of Jacksonville that we have made arrangements to loan money to home and apartment builders from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's large fund set aside to help relieve the housing shortage throughout the United States.

In order to distribute the funds as far as practical, amounts up to $5,000 but no larger are loaned on individual homes. Loans on apartments are in proportion to the size of the apartment.

Two things have prevented many of the substantial people of this city from building their homes—the high cost of building and lack of sufficient funds to finance the house.

However, the situation has changed. The cost of building is down 18 to 25% throughout the country, and the Farrell State Bank now has available ample money for your use according to this plan. Bear in mind that they are long time loans with easy payment conditions but can be liquidated any time after the third year.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

The Endowmentometer in the College Chapel was moved forward $2000 as a result of subscriptions recently made to the New Endowment Fund. This amount of subscriptions represents a subscription of $500. From a Kansas City alumnus of the class of '04, another of a similar amount from a Chicago alumnus of the class of '02, and still another of the same amount from a Cairo alumnus of the class of '01. Two of these alumni had given previously and their subscriptions are an indication of the willingness of many alumni to give a second and even a third time in order that the campaign may be successfully closed at commencement. Among other subscriptions represented in the above amount are four of $100 each from a Jacksonville alumnus of the class of '84, a New York alumnus of the class of '97, a Springfield friend and a member of the present Freshman class. The total amount now recorded on the Chapel Clock is $352,000.

The new literary society of Gamma Nu held a meeting in the Chapel Friday evening. The room in the dormitory which has been assigned to this society has been cleared and the boys are preparing to have the room redecorated. The College is allowing the society the temporary use of chairs.

Marie Thomas '22 was called home on Friday on account of the death of her uncle.

Mr. O. E. Pence, State Student Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. was here during the week holding conferences with the boys. He attended the Y. M. C. A. banquet and installation of officers on Wednesday evening.

Life Insurance as Collateral

Suppose a man has a piece of real estate worth $5,000 and he finds himself in urgent need of money. Ordinarily he can borrow 50%, or $2,500 on it, unless it is already mortgaged as considerable real estate is.

Then, take the case of a man, age 40, who has a twenty payment life policy on which he has deposited $5,000 ($500 a year for ten years); upon this he can borrow 75%, or $3,750, immediately from the company and without any expense except a normal rate of interest.

Ald line life insurance is a savings as well as protection. If you live you enjoy the benefits of your savings; if you die you have provided for others as you would have done had you lived.

Meanwhile, the properly insured man knows he has taken the wise and prudent course.

Nash Leads the World in Motor Car Value

IT IS interesting to observe to what lengths Nash goes in painstaking shop practice, because it bears directly upon the quality that has earned Nash cars their nation-wide esteem.

To make certain that Nash cylinders are absolutely true, a stream of cold water is circulated through the water jackets as the barrels are machined. This prevents heat being generated by the operation of machining, and it is heat that expands the cylinder and causes the variations in size which distinguish inferior cylinders from Nash cylinders.

Most Astonishing Value of the Year

THE low price of the new Cleveland Six is all the more remarkable when its new style and smartness are considered. Yet they are only a small part of its extraordinary value.

It is one of the few really new and stylish cars of the year

In every feature of the chassis, engineering skill has incorporated some improvement, some additional precision, some new assurance of greater efficiency, that make this latest Cleveland Six an unexpectedly fine car.

In the powerful, silent motor such features as silent chain drive, straight line manifold, double-valve springs, roller-lifters, wick lubrication of rocker arms, are exclusive or only found in much higher priced cars.

This new Cleveland gives all the power, speed and riding comfort of far more expensive cars—and in economy, there is no comparison.

MEREDOSIA BOARD IN REGULAR SESSION

Various Business Matters Considered at First Meeting of New Village Board—President Berger Issues Statement.

The village board of Meredosia held a regular session recently when the old board closed up the business for the year. The new members then assumed their duties, being sworn in by Justice A. E. Ritscher. The new members are James F. Brockhouse, W. F. Roegge, Charles Weghoff, and H. D. Berger, clerk the latter succeeding himself. The holdover members are John E. Beauchamp, Henry Hinners, J. F. Mayes and L. F. Berger, the president of the board.

J. F. Brockhouse was appointed mayor pro tem; Frank Korsmeyer treasurer. Dr. F. A. Neville is to be the health warden.

The following committees were appointed and approved: Finance—Weghoff, Roegge, Police and Highways—Hinners, Weghoff, Mayor Berger. Fire and Light—Brockhouse, Roegge, Beauchamp. Public Improvements—Roegge, Brockhouse, Hinners. Public Health—Beauchamp, Mayes, Mayor Berger. Ordinance—Mayes, Beauchamp, Brockhouse.

The treasurer's report showed an overdraft of $82.80 after all bills were paid for the year, with no anticipation warrants out. At the beginning of last year there was an overdraft of $10.04, with anticipation warrants amounting to $500 against last year's taxes. Therefore the board is in the best financial condition it has been for several years past.

The amount paid for public duty the past year was $8.50 which speaks well for Meredosia. On motion of the Mayor it was decided to request the C. I. P. S. Company to remove their high tension line off of the front street to the first alley east, for the safety of the public. The division superintendent of the Wabash appealed to the mayor to have this action taken, as the line interfered with the Wabash in loading boats during high water. The Eagle Packet company had also complained to the board about the matter.

President Berger made the following statement at the close of the session:

It gives me great pleasure to welcome the new members of the board. I see in the new board bankers, two merchants, a tile manufacturer, a poultry dealer and a retired farmer. I think this constitutes a very good representative board of our community, and I believe all will use their very best judgment in deciding all issues that will come before us the coming year.

There are some very important issues to be decided within the next 12 months, and I feel reasonably sure that the decisions made will be to the entire satisfaction of the citizenship of the community.

While the recent flood, the worst known in this valley, has not affected us it has our neighboring cities on the north and south, there is one matter that demands our immediate attention and that is to safeguard our public health. Our sewers are demanding immediate attention and there is water in many of the basements of homes in Meredosia. There are many pump wells, the water from which is unfit for use, and Dr. C. B. Nelson, of the state board of health, advises that our citizens boil all water before drinking.

I hope all our citizens will co-operate and use every precaution against typhoid fever and other diseases that may come as a result of the flood conditions, which fortunately are growing less serious. Our citizens have lost very little so far, but the farmers have had great losses, as nearly all the wheat is drowned out on land adjacent to Meredosia. We will feel the effects of the flood six months from now, and there will be very little wheat brought to this market, but we are very fortunate by comparison with those who have been driven from their stores and homes in nearby towns.

In closing I will say that it is my desire to co-operate with the new board in every way for the best interests of Meredosia and vicinity.

UNION GROVE SCHOOL HAD ALL DAY PICNIC

The pupils of the Union Grove school enjoyed an all day picnic last week on the last day of school. C. H. Ausmus is the teacher of the school and he planned a very enjoyable entertainment for the pupils at the closing of school. A fine picnic dinner was served at noon to the school children and their families. After dinner every one went out to the woods and spent the afternoon in flower hunting and playing. There were about thirty pupils in this school which is located near Sinclair. Mr. Ausmus has been the teacher of the school for three years and he has been engaged to take the school for next year again.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Feril Hess, Class of '15, is visiting at the college. Miss Hess is now the assistant editor of the National Y. W. C. A. magazine, the "Association Monthly."

Misses Lois Coultas and Vera Wardner of Winchester are guests of the college for the week end. Both these young women are very active in the Alumnae association plans for the Commencement time.

Interesting letters came from President and Mrs. Harker telling of many friends that they have met and of the delightful visit they are having. They expect to start for Illinois on May first and will return by way of the Southern route, stopping off at several places in Texas.

Next Monday morning the Young Woman's Christian association will give their annual May breakfast. This will be held in the Home Economics department and is always looked forward to with most pleasant anticipation by every one.

The lectures given by Professor S. H. Clark of the University of Chicago were of especial interest to the students and faculty. Mr. Clark is a man of rare judgment and has the faculty of presenting his thoughts in a most interesting as well as entertaining manner. He has been at the college a number of times, but each time he is received with increased enthusiasm.

Much interest has been aroused at the college on account of the locating of Heddings. According to the Associated Press dispatches, Heddings college, which has been located at Abingdon ever since its organization, is to be moved to Moline. This city offered $800,000 to secure this small college. The business interests of Moline and Rock Island realize the value of a school. If Moline considered it worth $800,000 to get a school the size of Heddings to locate in their midst, then it would be worth at least a million and a half dollars to the business interests of Jacksonville to support the two colleges it already has.

New Proof of Paige Speed Power Endurance

Paige 6-66 Daytona Model Travels 10 Miles at Rate of 93.2 Miles Per Hour

The Paige 6-66 Daytona Model is the holder of all world's stock chassis speedway records from 5 to 100 miles. But now this record-breaking car has further demonstrated its ability.

Piloted by Earl Cooper, the Paige, in an unofficial exhibition run against time, covered 10 miles in 6 minutes and 26 1/2 seconds at the San Carlos, California track, on Sunday April 16th. It thus travelled at the terrific speed of 93 1/2 miles per hour for the ten miles.

The official record for the distance, held by this same stock chassis is 6:31:48, or 91 1/2 miles per hour. It was made at the Uniontown Speedway a year ago.

Thus, once again, the Paige in the most spectacular manner has demonstrated its power and endurance.

The Paige 6-66 is the Master of the Highway.

MISS FJERIL HESS IS VISITOR IN THE CITY

Was Graduated from College in the Class of 1915—Has Been Engaged in Y. W. C. A. Work in European Countries—At Present is Managing Editor of Association Monthly

Miss Fjeril Hess, of New York City is in Jacksonville this week visiting with friends at Illinois Woman's College. Miss Hess is a graduate of the college with the class of 1915 and at present is the managing editor for the Y. W. C. A. Association Monthly, published in New York City. Miss Hess returned to America last July after spending about two years and a half in Y. W. work in the countries of Central Europe.

As first student secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Central Europe, Miss Hess founded and built the Studentsky Domov a student's home in Prague, Czechoslovakia. Her first work in Prague was that done in the social survey made by the Y. W. and Miss Hess made the report of the educational survey of the country. At this time the social survey commission consisting of about ten workers, handled all the student relief work and the distributing of funds sent from America for the assistance of students in central Europe. Some 70,000 students in Czechoslovakia, Poland, Roumania, Jugoslavia, and other countries were benefited by the funds disbursed by this commission.

While in Prague, Miss Hess translated some letters written by Dr. Alice Masaryk, who is now a member of the national assembly of the Czechoslovakian republic, and who at that time had been thrown in prison by the Austrian authorities. Dr. Masaryk wrote to her mother every day during the two years that she was kept in prison and the translations which Miss Hess made from these interesting letters were published in two numbers of the Atlantic Monthly in 1920.

Soon after leaving Prague Miss Hess went to Slovakia and there was at the head of the organization of recreational work. The Y. W. C. A. has two recreational centers one in Prague and the other in Slovakia. Miss Hess organized and conducted the first girls' summer camp in Central Europe. It was located a few miles out of Prague in a beautiful old castle which had been built 800 years ago. Set in a lovely park the castle made an ideal place for a recreation summer camp and there were three hundred and fifty girls in the camp during the summer when Miss Hess was at its head. Girls from the factories of the Czechoslovakian cities, shop girls and girls from every walk of life attended this camp and it was here that the games of volleyball, base ball and other American sports were introduced. Never before had the girls engaged in competitive games and though they were splendid athletes it was the work of the Y. W. C. A. to introduce to them real community sports.

Solve National Problems
The other camp was established in Slovakia and here the great difficulties of conflicting nationalities have been successfully solved in the interest of the community recreation. The Austrian, German, and Czech all having each other heartily have met at this camp and have surmounted the race hatred in their community life. The camp was entirely in charge of Czechs last summer and it was not found necessary to have American secretaries supervising the conducting of the camp. Miss Hess speaks in a hopeful manner of the conditions in Central Europe, especially in Czechoslovakia. The Y. W. has been able to accomplish a great deal during the reconstruction period and in her travels all over Europe Miss Hess speaks of the student relief work done by the association. The years spent abroad were not without exciting experiences and many hardships. A group of Y. W. workers, of which Miss Hess was a member, was caught in Germany at the time of the Kapp revolution. They were without food for two days and were finally forced to flee to Switzerland making the trip in freight cars.

Before coming to America, Miss Hess attended an international student conference of the Y. W. C. A. at Glasgow, Scotland. Among the many workers gathered there from all parts of the world was Miss Maude Royden, prominent in the student movement in England. Miss Hess has just attended a student conference held in Hot Springs, Arkansas this month and Miss Royden was one of the principal speakers at the conference. After a short visit with friends here Miss Hess will return to New York to take up her duties with the Woman's Press as editor of the Y. W. C. A. Monthly.
